

Coconino National Forest Trail Guides - Western Gateway Trails

Length: .7 to 6.1 miles Rating: Easy to Moderate
Use: Hiking, Bicycling, Season: Year' round
Hiking time: 1-4 hours Cumulative Elevation: 50-600 ft.

Notes: Respect private property boundaries.

This interconnected series of trails lies at the northern edge of Sedona west of Dry Creek. Route connections can be made to the labeled Aerie, Anaconda, Arizona Cypress, Cockscomb, Dawa, Girdner, OK, Rupp, Snake, and Two Fence Trails.

Included are the (A) Ledge-n-airy (2.0 mi), (B) Lost Frontier (2.9 mi), (C) Outer Limits (6.1 mi), (D) Remnant (0.7 mi), and (E) Roundabout (1.7 mi) Trails.

Equally recommended for hiking, mountain biking, and equestrian use. Multiple loop routes can be made combining parts of the many trails listed above and various one-way routes can be made using arranged transportation at a second trailhead. These trails have easy to moderate grades with little overall elevation change and are well signed, but have little shade.

The longest trail, 6.1 miles (C) Outer Limits Trail is accessed from the Cockscomb Trail with parking at the Aerie Trailhead or accessed from the Girdner Trailhead. The (A) Ledge-n-airy Trail provides a 2 mile option while the 2.9 mile (B) Lost frontier Trail provides a second option to the (C) Outer Limits Trail. The 1.7 mile (E) Roundabout Trail is accessed from the Girdner Trailhead with the short .7 mile (D) Remnant Trail providing an option to the (E) Roundabout Trail.

The Aerie Trailhead is located on a western spur of the Aerie Road that can be reached from Boynton Pass Road just to the west of Doe Mountain. The Girdner Trailhead is located at the end of Cultural Park Road which is accessed from the traffic light on SR89A at the Sedona High School.
